For Immediate Release:

National Highland Games Championships Coming to OKC Fair Park

WHAT: OKC Renaissance and Scottish Festival

WHEN: Saturday, November 7 and Sunday, November 8, 2026

WHERE: OKC Fair Park

The International Highland Games Federation (IHGF) National Highland Games Championships will take place November 7 and 8, during the OKC Renaissance and Scottish Festival at OKC Fair Park. The National Championships will bring together the top qualified athletes from across the IHGF All-American Series to compete for national titles in such events as the caber toss, hammer throw, weight for height, and more.

The top athletes from the Men's A Group, Women's A Group, and Women's Lightweight Division will earn the opportunity to move forward and represent the United States at the 2027 IHGF World Championships.

Athletes can register to participate here: https://www.okcrenfest.org/okc-highland-games/

In addition to the Highland Games, the OKC Renaissance and Scottish Festival offers attractions including jousting, food and shopping, musical entertainment, and much more. Tickets are available at okcfairpark.com and via walk-up.
